The combination of innovative design and the durable, safe qualities of REGUPOL aktivpro roll recycled rubber flooring ensures that athletes have the ideal space to train, push their limits, and achieve peak performance. The flooring's advanced shock absorption and noise-reducing properties contribute to a focused, high-intensity training environment. At the same time, its resilience against heavy equipment and extreme weight drops guarantees longevity and minimal maintenance. With this world-class facility, the University of Michigan continues to provide its athletes with the best possible resources to succeed at the highest level.

"You get to come out into something extraordinary, which is this weight room. This is the centerpiece of our player development, right here."*

Jim Harbaugh – National Champion
Former Head Coach University of Michigan
