The strategic use of contrasting colors enhances the center's layout, helping to visually define zones for specific activities such as weightlifting and cardio. This thoughtful design not only improves the functionality of the facility but also creates a modern, energetic atmosphere that inspires users to pursue their fitness goals.

REGUPOL aktiv was chosen for its exceptional durability, slip resistance, and shock-absorbing properties, making it ideal for high-impact activities and the demands of heavy weightlifting equipment. The flooring's superior acoustic performance helps reduce noise transfer, an essential feature in a multi-use facility like an athletic and wellness center. Additionally, its ease of installation, maintenance, and repair ensures long-term cost efficiency and minimal disruption to the facility's operations.

The Richard and Norma Small Athletic and Wellness Center at Cornell College stands as a testament to REGUPOL's ability to elevate athletic spaces, creating an environment that supports the health, well-being, and achievements of its users.
