This state-of-the-art flooring system delivers unparalleled performance for athletes and facility operators alike. The aktivpro roll system features flush inlaid platforms with REGUPOL crash, optimizing space and reducing tripping hazards for enhanced safety. Designed for durability, the system easily withstands the repeated impacts of Olympic weightlifting, offering stable footing and superior shock absorption. REGUPOL crash further enhances safety by minimizing noise, vibration, and barbell bounce, ensuring a secure and professional environment for athletes. The renovation at Iroquois Park Sports Centre highlights how thoughtful flooring choices can significantly enhance both the safety and performance of modern sports facilities.

“People walk in here now and they’re blown away – asking how did you get bigger? Well, we didn’t, we utilized the space better and we put a much better product (aktivpro roll) in place.”
